She's not a Hollywood star for nothing. Julia Roberts's weekend visit to Bangalore was so completely shrouded in unprecedented and hard-to-breach secrecy, few people got even a whiff of it. In fact, it's being said the luxury hotel she stayed in had to agree to a secrecy contract.

BT learns that Bangalore wasn't originally on the India itinerary for the award-winning Hollywood actress. It was Jaipur and the must-see Taj Mahal that were on her original agenda. Then, it seems, she was persuaded to visit Bangalore. Cameraman husband Danny Moder coupled the trip with some work.

But for Julia, it was just leisure. She came accompanied by her three children, twins Hazel Patricia and Phinnaeus Finn Walter, and the little one, Henry David, besides family members.

The Charlie Wilson's War actress spent most of her time in the hotel, lounging by the pool with her kids. Few recognised her, as she wandered about sans make-up and way hair loose and virtually covering her face. Fans were kept firmly at bay by the hotel staff.

Julia also dined at the hotel's Oriental restaurant on the day of her arrival. One hotel guest said, "I saw her and her hubby arm-in-arm and they made such a cute couple." After the weekend in Bangalore, it was time for the actress to head for Goa for a bit of sun and sand and more secrecy.
